RALPH JOHNSON

Ralph Johnson, 57, Kansas City, Kansas passed away April 25, 2011. Born to Joe and Myra Johnson, Ralph spent all of his life in the Turner area. He worked for Midway Auto Sales and Service for 8 years and was a very gifted mechanic. When looking for Ralph, friends and family knew exactly where to find him, his garage.

Ralph leaves behind his wife Pamela; his daughter, Theresa Johnson-Suchite (Victor); father, Cecil Johnson; brother, Cecil Abbott; two sisters Donna Eden and Lavone Wallace. He also leaves behind many nieces and nephews and lifetime friends and family.

A visitation will be held Monday May 2, 2011 from 5-7:30p.m., followed by a Celebration of Life memorial service at Maple Hill Funeral Home. He will be missed by all.

Please visit Ralph's memorial website at www.maplehillfuneralhome.com.

“ Ralph was a great guy. He will be missed by all who knew him. I will cherish the time we had together talking about the old times before his death.

“ I will never forget Ralph's laugh and his love of laughter! A particular time that we all laughed was at one of Pam & Ralph's famous Halloween parties and Ralph (this was when he still had his long hair) colored his hair multi colored and had the longest spikes I'd ever seen. Ralph was a dear friend, who looked after all those he cared about. He will be dearly missed but thought of often! Love you Ralph!
