

Ramon Perez Jr.

May 10, 1954 - September 17, 2015

In Loving Memory of: Ramon Perez Jr. "Pajaro"

Ramon Perez Jr. passed away on September 17th at 7:45 am at KU medical Center.

In memory of our beloved - Husband, father, brother, grand-father, great-grandfather and friend:

Ramon leaves behind his wife of 37 years, three children, four grand-children and a great-grand- daughter.

Ramon, was a great & beautiful person, who always loved talking, sharing stories and making others laugh.

He had suffered and struggled for many years with cirrhosis of the liver, coronary heart disease, diabetes, asthma to the point where his kidney's gave up. He was a fighter of life and a strong believer of Jesus Christ. He loved his family and friends and to this day continues to spread his warmth and love to all from up above. "heaven"

He enjoyed being around his police officer friends. All his friends from various restaurants that he and the officers liked eating at or drink a cup of coffee.

Where ever Ramon would go he would always meet someone he knew and always stopped to say hello and have a conversation. Yes, he would actually, have a long conversation with whom ever he met.

Ramon enjoyed life to the fullest, I cannot not express what a wonderful person he was he will remain in our minds and hearts.

He will be missed and remembered.

“ My Grandfather was a great man. He was more like a father to me. He would always be the one to stick up for me and care for me. I enjoyed all the jokes he would tell. Also, he was kind and sociable. We would be at a store and he would start talking to a random stranger like he knew them for years. When you were around him you couldn't be upset because in some way he could always make you smile. He would just start dancing and singing songs from whatever movie he would be watching at the time. I loved hearing his stories from when he was a kid. It makes me think that he lived a good life. My grandfather Ramon also got a chance to meet his great granddaughter, Shadoe, who is 8 months now. He loved her and she loved him. Everytime she would see him, her face would light up and she would start laughing and smiling. I love my lelo!!! I always have and I always will. <3 <3 <3
