“ These memories are from yesteryear! I was just a young girl, not even a teen yet, when Ricky (that's what we called him) came into our lives via his mother, whom I dearly loved as well. There were 11 children living under the same roof and Ricky got his own room! He deserved to have his own room, after all, he was a teenager! Ricky was always kind and protective of the younger sisters and step-siblings. Thank you for being you and having your own children and a wonderful wife to love and cherish! We love you, rest in peace and I'll see you again!
