“ I went to see my brother, Bobby, the Saturday before his passing. He held my hand for so long and then I asked if I could pray with him. He squeezed my hand even tighter. Spent about three hrs up there. When I got ready to leave, his son Scott was in the room with him. I leaned over to kiss him on the forehead and tell him I love him. And his last words to me were, "don't be stupid". A memory I will always cherish. RIP brother Bob. I pray you are flying high. 🙏
