“ Bob was a funny, kind, and loving man with a wonderful family that I dearly love. You may be in a better place, but you will never be forgotten. May you rest in peace.

Such a wonderful, smart man with a great sense of humor. He loved to laugh and enjoyed his grandchildren and great grandchildren immensely. We loved his personality and outlook on life. I don't think I ever heard Bob complain about anything even when he was in pain. I also loved his faith. He told me numerous times that he was praying for us. May your soul, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen. Loves to the family

“ As my wife and I were heading to the hospital to see my grandpa for the last time on Monday morning, we received the word that my grandpa had decided it was time to go home upstairs and begin a new journey. We had the radio on and the song playing was Aerosmiths "your my angel"..... my grandpa has been and will continue to be my angel for the rest of my days. We love you grandpa bob, and the world has lost a great and wonderful man, you will forever be in our hearts and minds. Thanks for all the wonderful memories and life lessons. You lived to love and it showed every second.

RIP papa Bob your loving grandson Jeremy

My father in law was a true jewel!!! He loved his family more than life. No one was a stranger to him. He was the prayer warrior for his family & friends. It's been a joy to be part of his family. I will always cherish the memories of him faithfully going to all of his grandchildren ball games!! He supported our kids in every sport they played!! However, what I will always remember, even as he was battling his illness he would always tell us that everything is lovely!! I know you have gone home dad but I rest assured that you are praying for us all today!! Larry
