This is your Aunt Betty Jean - dear Gaylynn and Megan and Josh and Timmy and all the little ones. Donna and David - I wish so much that I could wrap my arms around you his morning but I know that Bobby and Lloyd and Wanda and Sarah and Lela and Lila will be there. All your beautiful faces are before me this morning, so far away that it breaks my heart not to be there. I am with you in spirit and in this huge wonderful love that Robbie carried for all of us, and especially for each of you. As you look around and see the tear-streaked faces of people who loved him, feel also their love for you. I will be with you in the spring, when the pain still comes in waves, and we will hug each other and tell Robbie stories. Know that Florida is always here for you - this wild and crazy place that Robbie loved so much that he would drive all night to get here. And know that I am always here for you - Robbie's wild and crazy aunt. I see him smiling back at all of us, flying free. I am playing and singing "Bohemian Rhapsody" in his honor today.

“ Rob was a great friend and mentor. He loved his family dearly. He always put others before himself. When I would stop by the store to visit with him, we would talk for so long that our wives would call us wondering where we were. I have been so blessed to have known him. See you on the other side brother.

I'll will always be grateful to have had a nephew like Robbie, and that he got to make one more trip to Florida - he sounded so happy when he called from the Keys. If Gaylynn was happy, Robbie was happy. Reporting on her progress after hip surgery, he said "She's riding a bicycle up and down the beach right now - it makes me feel so good to see her doing that."

“ My husband and I send our deepest condolences. We were fortunate enough to have known Rob for the last three years. I feel so blessed to have had him as a boss through NAPA in Blue Springs. We all enjoyed his amusing stories and jokes he would pull. He was also an easy person to talk to. On many occasions, I received the caring advice that a father would give, as I am sure so many others did also. Mrs. Edwards, it was an honor to have known your beloved husband. Our deepest sympathy.
