“ We first met Bob in 1963 or 1964 when he came home on leave from the Marines. He came with my brother, Warren Biswell, as they had become good friends in the service. Warren brought Bob with him when he came to visit me and my husband, David. Then through Warren & his wife, Bobbie, we became friends with Bob and his wife, Linda. We had some fun times together. Still remember the first enchiladas I ever ate were made by Linda when she & Bob invited us to their place in Liberty for dinner. Bob was an amazing person and we were sad to hear of his passing.

“ My husband and I met Bob at Holiday Lanes when he returned to Saline County. Were so surprised to find we were related, and that he shared the same name as my brother.

He was a very nice, good natured man and we enjoyed having made his acquaintance.

Only wish we would have had the privilege of knowing him longer and to have met his family.

Offering our deepest sympathies for your loss, and wishing you peace and love.
