

Robert Kilroy

August 7, 1952 - November 21, 2024

Robert Dennis Kilroy, born August 7, 1952, in Wichita, Kansas, passed away on November 21, 2024, at AdventHealth Shawnee Mission at the age of 72. The son of the late James L. Kilroy Jr. and Elizabeth J. Gentry, Bob was also survived by his brothers, Larry Kilroy and Tom Kilroy. Bob is survived by his loving wife, Roberta (Caster) Kilroy; step-son Chad McGowen; step-daughters Ashley (Ryan) Dizon and Kiley McGowen; godchildren Joe Sellers, Ann (Curt) Turk, and Dani (Nate) Ewan; six grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren. He leaves behind a host of friends, neighbors, coworkers, and customers who were deeply touched by his warmth and generosity. A proud graduate of Kansas State University, Bob built lifelong friendships during his college years. These bonds remained strong, as they gathered to cheer on their Wildcats, Chiefs, enjoying football games and tailgating for decades. Bob was known for hosting lively parties filled with loud music, captivating stories, and good company. An avid dog lover, Bob always looked forward to playing ball and handing out treats to all the neighborhood dogs, cherishing the joy they brought to his life. Bob's favorite motto, "Kilroy was here," reflected his vibrant personality and the indelible mark he left on everyone he met.

Tribute Wall

“ 1 file added to the album Memories Album

Maple Hill Funeral Home and Cemetery - November 27, 2024 at 11:49 AM