“ Patty and Alex and Family -

How sad and what a loss to everyone that knew Bob or would have had a chance to know him. He was and is one the good guys, really good guys. I hope you know how much he touched all of us. I haven't seen Bob for years but learning of his struggles, the classy way he fought and accepted life's end, and his recent death really sadden me.... So sorry for you guys and for me in not keeping up with him and enjoying him the way you all did...

“ A great friend, co-worker and neighbor! Affectionately known by us as "Bobby", always with twinkling eyes and constant smile, I appreciate the years at Greystone, the years I lived "around the corner" and the times I would just run into Bob by chance at the grocery or Jalisco's. No matter how many problems he fought, he always smiled, always had time for others. God bless you in your loss. I know it is large! We have all lost. Shirley Hoden

“ I'm sorry for the loss of your dear loved one, and may you find encouragement from God's word the bible at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those in any sort of tribulation through the comfort with which we ourselves are being comforted by God." (Psalms 83:18) May you be comforted, as you draw close to God in prayer.
