

Robert Leon Patrick

May 7, 1945 - September 1, 2022

Leon was born the son of Kenneth Lee Patrick and Hazel Betty Menne on May 7, 1945 in Mound City, Kansas. He moved to Kansas City as a teenager and soon began working. Leon held several jobs throughout his life, spending 15 years at the Certainteed fiberglass insulation plant, 10 years at the Kansas City, KS grain elevators as a scale operator, and then working in a transmission shop prior to retirement. Leon married Victoria Ann Brack on January 1, 1968 together they would have a son, and daughter. In 1989 Leon began a 27 year relationship with Shirley Holister that gave him a larger loving family. Leon had many hobbies such as bowling, billiards, and horseshoes. He enjoyed cold beer, country music, westerns, and the Chiefs and Royals. In addition to his parents Leon was preceded in death by his wife, Victoria on December 27, 1988; his long time partner, Shirley Hollister on March 18, 2016; daughter, Patricia Garner on March 9, 2021; and sister, Judy Frame. Leon is survived by his son, Robert Patrick Jr; step children, Billy Hilt, Debbie Vang, and Lori (Ken) Willmon; brother, Harold (Carol) Patrick; sister, Beverly (Ron) Carpenter; 7 grandchildren and several great grandchildren, one of which is named after him. Leon also leaves behind a long list of friends.

“ I helped take care of him on Fridays. I would watch his westerns with him. We would talk about the past and laugh. I miss him :(

I know we enjoyed your company when you would visit him at home, and the hospital. He also enjoyed talking to you on the phone when you couldn't stop by.
