“ I have known Robbie most of my life.
I've known both Robbie and Matthew from the time I was 6 years old at Oak Grove School.
I remember one time my Dad was making Rob, and I a bowl of Potato soup, and Matt pulls up front, and he, and I both walk out to greet Matt.
Matt says: Hey let's go do something, and Robbie says: MATT! we can't leave now, Ronnie's Dad is making us both Potatoe soup. lol

Even at a young age Robbie was considerate of other people.
I will miss you my friend.

“ I remember he came over to my house when we were young adults, and my Dad was making Potato soup.

Robbie asked my Dad: Mr. Cain, can we have a bowl?

That just made my Dad's day, he said sure.

As my Dad finished the Soup, he poured both Rob, and I a bowl, and at this time Matt showed up outside.

We went out to meet Matt, and Matt said "Let's take off, and go do something".

Rob tells Matt, Matt we can't leave Ronnie's Dad just made us Soup.

To me that is another example of how considerate Robbie was even as a young man.

“ Obviously there are so many memories to choose from its hard to figure out what to say... when we were kids we were riding g our mini bike in the field and ran thru a wasp nest and we both got stung several times. Talking each other thru the dramatic situation we established early in life that we were brothers and would always be there for each other
