

Robert A. Rhone

March 2, 1940 - June 15, 2010

Robert, the son of Jerry Rhone, Sr. and Lucinda (Chase) Rhone was born March 2, 1940 at the family farm near Solen, North Dakota. He grew up on the farm attending grade and high school in Solen. He left High School to join the United States Air Force.

After discharge from the service he began working as a mechanic and later began working on construction as a crane operator. He was the crane operator for the contractor who built the new expressway bridge crossing the Missouri River joining Mandan/Bismarck. The same contractor received the contract to build a similar bridge across the Missouri at Kansas City, Kansas. While working on that bridge he met and married Peggy Sue Rhone. They made their home at 1816 South 31st St. in Kansas City, Kansas.

Peggy passed away June 21, 1994. Robert continued working as a crane operator for various contractors in the area and most recently worked for contractors rebuilding oil refineries in the Houston, Texas and other areas where hurricane Katrina damaged.

Left to mourn is his children, Deborah Dawkins and Donald Truelove. His brothers Jerry, Jr. (Bernice) residing at Flasher, ND, Richard (Pearl) and Lyle of Mandan, ND Sisters, June (Ben) Kasyoki at Sissenton, SD, Sharon Chadwick, Grand Forks, ND, Hilda (Wayne) Gifford, Flasher and Marlene (Larry) McElwee, Bremerton, WA. Robert was preceded in death by his wife, Peggy Sue Rhone, his parents, his sister Elma Swafford and brothers George and James. Many grandchildren, nieces and nephews, and the many friends and relatives throughout the United States.
