“ I will always remember Uncle Bob joking and playing around with us Vassar Boys, he loved to come up behind you and poke at you and grab on ya. And it was always in a playful loving manner, even though that tough old bastard had a hell of a grip on a chubby little kid like me at the time that hurt a little lol. These are the fond memories I will always remember of Uncle Bob and miss. Love ya Uncle Bob, you and aunt Dottie are happy and healthy forever now.

“ Where do I start? I have so many fond memories of my Uncle Bob. I remember shortly after I married I was trying to make bacon for everyone. I was slowly peeling the bacon apart and placing it in the skillet when Bob walked in. He said, "Gimme that bacon girl!" He threw the pieces in the skillet all stuck together and told me I was wasting time! He separated it as it was cooking. The last time I saw him, just a few months ago he hugged me tight, kissed me and told me that he loved me. Bob was a loving man. He would do anything to help you and it was clear that he loved his family. I will miss you Uncle Bob.
