That was s wonderful video. Ronnie was such a great friend to me when we were kids growing up. Like so many of our group we grew apart and lost track as adults. It sucks that so many of us are leaving this world way too early. I truly hope Ronnie found peace in his end. The light in his eyes and smiles in the photos remind us all of the dreams and hopes we once had. I suppose perhaps life isn't all it was cracked up to be. GOD BLESS RONNIE COX!!!

“ Ronnie had some hotwheels and Beanie Babies in a building in back of his house and one day he said come on I want to show you something so, I followed him and when he opened the door to the building I was in awe! He then picked up a little turtle Beanie Baby and tossed it at me it had a tag on it and it read "Big Heart and he said cause you have such a big heart and your a sweetheart! I then told Ronnie that he did have a heart because he would try to put on that he didnt care but what he just did showed otherwise! He turned his head slightly and gave a little shy smile and we were friends from then on! He defended me one day and said he was gonna knock this person out and when he showed his arm it reminded me of "Popeye" and he had one eye partially closed and I called him Popeye and at first he was offended until I explained to him his look and we laughed and from then on out I was the only one that could call him popeye! He said I was like a little sis and from then on we was friends! RIP Ronnie I know you are no longer suffering and you got that smile back! Prayers sent out to your family and till we meet again keep smiling!

Ronnie, you will be missed and you will hold a special part in My Heart. I loved it when you came to my work and the first thing you did was looked for me or asked if I was at work. You was the bestes friend to me. Love You Man. We will meet again and have those laughs together. Love ya like a little brother my friend. Now be free and be my Guardian Angel for all of us.. God Bless.

Ronnie and my son were great friends for 40 years or so. We met him so long ago I don't remember when it was. Always around Turner Days, he would come by and tell me not to forget to save his parking place. He would stop by just to say hello even when Garrett wasn't here. He told us all the time, "you're Garrett's family, that makes you my family. If anyone ever messes with you, let me know." Ronnie was ALWAYS respectful to us. Just a week ago he ate dinner with us for the first time in all the years we have known him. He was so full of life and jokes and fun. It will not be the same without Ronnie dropping by and always giving us guff about the Raiders are better than the Chiefs. You will be missed.

“ Our deepest sympathy to Ronny's Mother, Father, and family. May God give you peace in this time of heartbreak. We knew Ronny through our son's. When our son Jake was shot Ronny came to help us. He took Jake out for car rides, which Jake loved. Jake was left blind and Ronny made it a little easier for Jake to feel whole again. Ronny, we have'nt forgotten your kindness. May you be in God's loving arms forever. Chuck and Susan Kilgore
