“ Aunt Rose was a wonderful, extremely strong person. I remember lots of caring things about her, but I'll share one that I haven't thought about in a long time. When my family was still on the farm and Uncle Clifford, Aunt Rose and family would visit, Aunt Rose would always pack a box for us girls. It would contain clothes and other things she thought we might enjoy. It was like Christmas! Bless her! Wanda Brown Barnett

“ I will always remember dear Aunt Rose as a spunky lady who spoke her mind. As a child this trait stood out to me, because I didn't know many women who were confident enough to say what they thought then. As an adult, I came to realize just how much of a trailblazer she was. She lived life on her terms. The other traits I remember most are her generosity, her outstanding cooking ability, and her artistic flair with flowers. She always had gifts for the cousins at Christmas, often delivered as she was on the way to take food baskets where they were needed. An invitation to dinner at Aunt Rose and Uncle Clifford's was an occasion to be savored when Aunt Rose cooked. Her tacos were the best, and nobody could ever make divinity like she could. When Aunt Rose brought a gift of flowers from her garden, it was a work of art that brought beauty into lives. When I visited my mother in her last years there was often an arrangement of fresh flowers on the table and when I asked, Yes, they were from Aunt Rose. My life was changed for the better by having an Aunt Rose.

My heart and spirit are there with all my Brown cousins. Loretta Autry

“ Gram will be missed by all but we are comforted knowing she is where she has wanted to be.....in Heaven with Gramps celebrating eternal life with God. We were blessed to have been granted so many wonderful years with Gram and Gramps. The love, laughter and good times shared by all including the many wonderful summers spent at vacationing at their cabin, It'll Do, on Pelican Lake in MN. The holidays and family get-togethers at their house on 13th St in KCK and later their home on Dearborn in Mission. So many memories of two special people, loved by all. Gram will be missed but we are very happy she is back at Gramps' side once again. We know they are looking down on us today and every day, smiling on us.
