“ I was very saddened to hear about the passing of my Aunt Rosie. As a kid growing up in West Des Moines Iowa, visits from Aunt Rosie, Uncle Joe, Johnny and Vincent were the highlight of my summers. I happily remember how loud the volume became when all the Camacho siblings gathered in my Grandfather's house. Aunt Rosie was the eldest and then my mom Connie. It was sometimes hard for me to distinguish which one was speaking, because their voices were so similar. I recall with fondness how she would greet me with a big hug and an ever bigger kiss on the cheek. I will never forget Aunt Rosie's explosive laughter, her perfect hair, her amazing cooking( she made sure that I never left her table hungry). Most of all, I remember how she always made me feel like I was special. Heartfelt condolences to Uncle Joe, John, Vince, Jennifer, Andrew and Jessica.

“ To John, Vince, Jessica, Jennifer and Andrew: I was so sorry to learn of the passing of your Mom and Grandmother. I know you were devoted to her and did everything loving family should do while you had her with you. I hope your memories sustain you during this difficult time.
