“ There just aren't many people made in the same mold as Laraine. She had her struggles and wasn't perfect, but she was the first to acknowledge that. I looked forward to her regular Friday night phone calls - sometimes talking for more than an hour if she really had some pressing issue on her mind or a story to share - and she had plenty of those. She will be missed. Condolences to the family - especially Nathan and Becky who always stood solidly by her side no matter what. I look forward to seeing her again.
