“ *Sis – Dale & I will truly miss you. Your laughter & tears were always to be shared with another, always. You had a definite gift for making people feel special and loved with an ear to ear grin and a giggle. One in a million; you took the time to notice the things that were important about the people around you and you made the effort to be sure each of us knew we made a difference to you, better than any social media I know. We always felt welcome and included around you. Your family did you proud to guide your way home. Hope they can rest and feel at peace now. Say hello to all there Sis; laugh hard and hug long. She was telling the crew on the old B25 how it was built. They offered to take her up in it but we couldn't get her into the bomb bay. Later she always was sorry she didn't take them up on it.

“ I loved our family gatherings at their house in KC, and I really loved all of the vacations with Aunt Sis and Uncle Chris. I was usually the lucky one that got to stay with them in the motorhome or 5th wheel. I called myself their summer daughter, and Aunt Sis would laugh and tell me she liked that. She had the sweetest, most loving soul. Love you Aunt Sis and I will miss you always!

“ I have too many to name just one. One time my grandma Alma Lange and I went to visit. I slept in the cutest little room. We all drove to Springfield and visted the Bass Pro Shop where they patiently watched me try no catch a hummingbird, I was do determined!! They just chuckled and let me try my hardest, they looked so slow! We ate dinner at Aunt Lucile's and I helped make homemade noodles. I was run across the street and play tennis. 4th of July was so much fun! We would go swimming at the country club and watch fireworks!

The girls (aunt sis, aunt Lucile and my grandma) whipped up unbelievable feasts, I know I gained when I was there. I always insisted on doing the dishes, i loved that! Then we played farkle and card games, they DID NOT let me win either!!! Oh how I miss all 3 of them!! They were an amazing trio and held their beauty!! My dear lord I miss them all!!

She would visit on Easter, I have a picture of her, my mom, grandma and Aunt Lucile and Christopher as a baby. She got to meet all of my babies but I don't think she did Madillynn. They would argue jokily over holding the babies.

I lost my grandma Jan 17th and our first little girl was born Feb 13th she came over and held her for hours! She kissed her sweet face taking about my grandma and called herself granny Ruth to Lily. I remember bring self conscious because I get huge when I'm pregnant she reached over and touched my face and said "Jenny your more beautiful now than ever"

I have so many memories! Thide girls would sing and dance, they were so lucky to have such a close relationship. I know the is about Aunt Sis but the 3 are now together again! They were unbelievable, so beautiful so kind and will never ever be forgotten. Those who knew her loved her! Aunt Sid im so sorry I didn't get to say goodbye, but it's not goodbye its I will see I one day. I love you and im glad your in no pain. I appologize for my errors, it's hard typing thru tears. Give everyone a hug for me. Love you forever!!! Rest in peace to one of the most remarkable women i have ever met. 🌹 🌹
