Numerous times I tried to locate Sandy to learn this evening of her passing. So many great-fun memories of JED's years were Sandy. The one memory I'll always treasure is when the toilet blew the wrong way. Thankfully, only water was in it but you can only imagine her facial expressions & comments ~ priceless! I still giggle thinking of it.

Sandy was a dedicated mother, loved her family that brought her so much joy, she was the “go-to” at all levels at JED, and well respected by all! Sandy was the definition of dedication.

We didn't kept in touch like we should had, but I hope you know how much I cherished her.

To Jennifer and Ryan, your Mom was so proud of each of you. The photos you shared were the same ~ she would light up when talking about her children, parents, and family.

Here's to you Sandy ~ to all our conversations, life events, and TONS of laughter ~ I was blessed to had known you! Rest in Peace my friend.

“ I want to offer my deepest condolences to Sandy's family. I worked with Sandy at JE Dunn from 1993 until her retirement. We shared a lot of good times, talking about family and just life in general. I wish I had kept in touch, but she'll be someone I won't forget. May you find peace and comfort knowing she was loved!
