“ I saw Sandy for the first time in many years when she and David came to the nursing home that Dan was in when he was dying. She, Jess, and MJ attended his funeral and went out to lunch with us afterwards. We kept in touch daily over the phone and helped each other through our rough times. Sometimes we would talk several times a day. She and David came over to my house once and got the feet to Dan's wheel chair to put on her wheel chair. I loved her like a sister and miss her terribly. My heartfelt prayers go out to everyone in her family. She was truly a beautiful lady inside and out. Love you all!

*well I see that you finally have the last word again, Sandy!
lol. it was always like this, wasn't it? me you and Jessica too. and Boceifus, (bark, bark) as well. so now time stands still. and all those memories won't fade away. they just get stronger every day. where would Sandy be today without Susie F and me!
Susie took you in, when no one else would!
Susie was your Adopted Sis! their was nothing that Susie would miss about taking care of you. you Inspired us all to better ourselves with coffee in hand you would find a Plan to take care of it all. you somehow found a way to make things work out every day I remember sitting in your home you would cook for an Army of "Prayer Warriors" so we would be filled with your "Faith, Hope and Love" that shall now be sent by God's Angels and Doves I know that Heaven is all you said it was to be where Grace and Love and Joy abounds with a cuppa coffee in your hand I see your gathering of family Clann for another session of Sandy Coffee Talk time where words are now soft and kind with streams of living waters flow to help us down here to soften the Blow so my message here is to all who read let not your hearts be troubled for Miracles around Sandy's friends will happen every day so don't put off what you can do today to send lots of Hugs of love your way to do the "IMPOSSIBLE" was Sandy's Forte she conquered Mountains, Valleys when times were rough she "Our Sandy" never gave up. neither will you cause you were Sandy's friend you must stand tall she is the the Presence of GOD after all!
I wont say good bye cause this is not the end only the beginning for you so I wrote this little poem for you so all would know where and who you were in life precious and grace is who you are now you are our little Angel beaming from afar shine down on us and make us laugh again my friend* for Jess and David and Susie too. were all looking up cause your right here with you and me. you never left us you see! sincerely, Vicki of Shawnee. April 19th 2014
