“ Mark , Sending prayers and strength your way in this time of need. I'm sorry I didn't ever meet your Sandy. She looks like a very lovely person from all the pictures. I know that you will be going through some tough times for a while. Please facebook me if you just wanna talk, or go to lunch , go have a drink, anything. You have a lot of friends and family to lean on for strength. Were here for you bud.

“ So sorry to have missed so much of all of your lives. We know Sandy was a beautiful person inside and out and are happy to see so many wonderful memories from her life and the obvious love for her that is being shared from so many. She touched lives and hearts and will never be forgotten. Sending love and strength to Tony, Sara, and Mark Metz as you mourn this loss. So glad she had all of you in her life.
