“ Dr. Sarah was the most compassionate, loving person/caretaker I've ever known. It's difficult to wrap my head around the thought of her taking care of so many people all these years, yet couldn't get taken care of in her time of need. The only answer to this is that God needed her as an angel with a great, loving, upbeat sense of humor. As long as I live, I will always remember Sarah saying this and many of my appointments over the years as she would give me warm hugs at the end of my appointments....She would say: "God always sends me the best patients...you know how I know this? Because he always sends the others down the street!" She was one of the most special people I will ever know and will greatly miss.

Sarah and I went to school together, she was always happy and smiling. I remember her telling me she wanted to go into geriatrics to help people. I was one of her chiropractor patients and she was the same sweet person she always was. I will miss her.

“ My memories of Sarah go way back and even though we were only nine years apart in age, from a child’s perspective that can seem like light years. Nonetheless, I grew up telling everyone that Sarah was the BEST babysitter ever! My family attended the same church as Sarah’s family during her teen years. Sarah would often watch my siblings and me when my parents needed to go out. We were always so excited to learn that Sarah was coming over to keep us. She was very kind, extremely fun to be around and some you wanted to be near. We would often sneak out of bed and creep down the hallway to scare her and she would laugh and then lovingly tuck us back into bed. She had great patience! And I loved it when she would allow us to stay up later than we should have.

I will never forget her loving spirit, her infectious laugh and her wonderful sense of humor. My family and I were truly blessed by Sarah and her entire family. My father pastored the church where Sarah’s family attended during the late sixties. I can remember listening ever so intently as the youth choir (which Sarah was a part of) would sing or share one of those wildly popular musicals from that time period like “Natural High.” Perhaps that is one reason why I am a worship pastor today.

My heart and mind were touched deeply by how Sarah cared for people. She left a lasting impression on me when I was just a little kid sitting under her watch by how she interacted with me, treated me with great importance and gave me a sense of security when I was in her presence. God used her at even a young age to bless those young and old alike. I thank God for her life, for her witness and for the life she lived to the fullest.

I pray God’s richest blessings on David and her extended family. May God’s presence comfort you at this time and His eternal promises give you great hope that you will see her again. I praise God for the memories I have of Sarah and here extend my gratitude to our Heavenly Father for the blessing those remembrances are to me. I am blessed beyond measure because of the life she lived.

“ My life has been so enriched from knowing Sara! Here is a poem for the family

HEAVEN

I've found a place where I can be free, I've found a whole new beginning just made for me. I know only peace and I never feel pain. Days are full of sunshine and it never rains.

All my dreams have become my truths. I can smile I can laugh I can walk I can run, I can hear every whisper, I can see past the sun. My body is whole and my mind is clear I know all the answers and I'm free from all fear.

I know why you mourn me I see how you weep your heart is full of aching from the love that is deep and I'm grateful for loved ones that hold me so dear. But remember I've found a better place here. I will be beside you always nearby. so don't mourn me to long nor forever cry. whenever your sorrow bears down on your heart thank not of my ending but of my new start. For on earth there's no joy that I'd ever seen to compare with the joy of God smiling at me.

My heart breaks not only for myself but all who knew Sara, my challenge is for any one who she's helped and touched go out and help someone, be a blessing to them as Sara was to us. Love and prayers from my heart to yours. Rose c.

“ We loved our Dr. Sarah!! She gave us great patient care but she was also our friend. She went out of her way to be a part of our lives, she grieved for us when we grieved, rejoiced with us when we rejoiced and prayed for us and loved us all along the way. Our sweet friend and caregiver will be greatly missed by us both professionally and personally.

Our prayers and sympathy are with her family, friends and all who knew her but we are rejoicing with her as she is now celebrating her arrival in heaven with her Saviour, Jesus!!

“ From the time Sarah was born, she was the apple of Dessie and Russell's eyes, as was David. There was a time when Sarah was a baby, that they got all the way home from church and realized they had forgotten baby Sarah, Dessie was beside herself. But in Dessie style, she came in laughing. Russell just shaking his head. Then when Sarah was an adult and one of the oldest in our youth group. She was talking to me about traveling up the east coast, if I remember right! Then she presedes to tell me that she was going to hitchhike! I was so upset with the idea of her doing this. Sarah tells me, "oh it's ok, Ann. I get in the vehicle, pull out my apple and start peeling with my sharp knife. No one messed with Sarah. Such a wonderful Christian woman, that shall be terribly missed, by all.

May our, God rest her soul.

Sarah and I was classmates at Argentine. Best of friends. Before High School, when we were younger, I would run through the woods and up the hill to her house. We would ride horses together. At the creek we would catch crawfish together. Her mother had made stuffed peppers, which was very good. Sarah I know you are safe in Jesus arms. Rest in peace. We shall all get together in the sweet by and by. I will miss you. I love you and Thank you for such great memories. Thank you for being my friend.

I will always remember Sarah as a kind, generous and loving neighbor who loved God, family and friends. She was truly a giver and she just loved helping people. We were so blessed by just knowing her. God's light showed through in everything she did to help everyone she could. We will miss you Sarah.
