

Sandra Jo Gentry

October 14, 1939 - June 22, 2014

Sandra Jo Gentry went to be with her Savior on Sunday, June 22, 2014. She was born in Post, TX on October 14, 1939. She was the fifth of seven children born to JM and Billie James. Sandra married Kenneth Odell Gentry, August 19, 1961. Sandra was preceded in death by: parents, JM and Billie James, husband, Kenneth Odell Gentry, brother, Shine James, and sisters, Charlene Jones and Bobbie Green. Sandra is survived by: brother, Bo James, of Mannford, OK; sisters, Linda Adams of Kansas City, KS; and Gerene Murders of Jennings, OK. Odell and Sandra were blessed with four children whom she is also survived by: Philip Odell Gentry of Prairie Village, KS; Janice Campbell and her husband Jim of Sand Springs, OK; Karla Wallace of Catoosa, OK; and Ellen Wasson and her husband Clarence of Lenexa, KS. Odell and Sandra had ten grandchildren, sixteen great grandchildren, and three great-great grandchildren.

Sandra Gentry was a member of The Baptist Chapel where she taught Sunday school for over 30 years, leaving behind a Godly heritage to many who came to know the Lord through her life. She was recognized by her family as a great storyteller and family historian. Sandra was truly a lady: well spoken, refined, and proper - traits she loved to put on display at her famous tea parties. Thanksgiving holidays were made special by her delicious turkey, "Henrietta" and sage dressing. Sandra spent most of her life as a homemaker, but also enjoyed working many years at JC Penney Outlet where she met close friends and could search the isles for a good bargain. Most of all, Sandra loved God, her family, her friends, and her little bulldog, Jack. Her last days were comforted by a “big party” that she shared with loved ones; enjoying good food, good music, and praising God.

“ Love you Grandmother. You will be so missed. Thank you for bringing such a Godly Heritage of Faith to my Family. I will never forget the words you said to me and my wife and kids the day after you found out you had cancer; "I am not afraid, I am not anxious, I know where I am going, and I can't wait to get there." NOW That's Faith!!!

“ My heart is heavy for the loss of Aunt Jody, one of my precious aunts. BUT, she is in heaven rejoicing with JESUS and her family that has gone before her, and she is no longer suffering. I loved being with her and all my family at her Party that she wanted and GOD granted that wish for her. My thoughts and prayers are with all our family at this difficult time. I love you all!
