“ My condolences to Sean's parents. I knew Sean from high school: we were classmates and worked on the Prep News together as well. Although I hadn't seen Sean in many years, I regret that we didn't connect again. He was a funny, bright and likable guy. May he rest in peace.

“ I worked with Sean many years ago at A.D.Banker and he was always a joy to work with and be around. Such a fun guy with a great personality, I was so very saddened to hear of his early passing. Deepest sympathies to you all, may you find peace in the love and memories that you shared.

“ Keeping you and John in my prayers. My own son, the same age as Sean, has major health issues as well, and it's a hard road to travel. Sean was very lucky to have you two as his loving parents. May you find peace in knowing he is no longer suffering and has earned his angel wings. Love you both!

“ John and Cathy. I woke up thinking about both of you. I think because in the past several months we had discussed both having sons dealing with health issues. To lose a child is every parents worst nightmare. I am praying for all of your family during this difficult time. Thankful that Sean is out of pain and suffering.
