“ We will always remember your mom and her kindness in feeding our cats. When we adopted Sampson, who had been a neighborhood cat for a while, Sampson would often go over and sit on the front porch and your mom would come out and give him some food and water. And when we went out of town a few times, she also watched after him. She was a very nice lady and we will miss her . And Sampson Kiki, and Autumn will miss her also. This morning Brian early Sampson was over on the porch waiting for her to come to the door. I called him home and told him that he would not be able to see her anymore. It was very sad. She was really, really a nice lady.
