“ I have so many beautiful memories that I cannot name just one. She brought so much joy to our family. She was there when my mother passed away to give me what a mother normally would have given. She was definitely more than a sister-in-law. She was a mom, a sister, a friend, a confidante and much more,. She is in a place now where there is no pain and suffering and she's together with all her loved ones who went before her. I love her very much and miss her more than words can say. Until we meet again...may she rest in peace.
