

Sherri K. Young

November 9, 1957 - December 10, 2017

We all lost an amazing and beautiful soul on December 10th, 2017, a Dotte (Wyandotte) original, one that had a heart of gold, one that distributed that heart to those who came in contact with her, and one that loved harder than anyone. She was a mother, a grandmother, a sister, a wife, an aunt, a friend; she was a soldier that fought every battle with courage, even her last battle that she fought the hardest to defeat. She embraced every moment with her friends and family, with her contagious smile, her Bud Light in a can, her love for her Chiefs jacket that everyone would like to forget, and her love for life. A stubborn woman, who was bold and vibrant, who brought laughter to almost any situation, a star that was brighter than the rest, our star, that will still continue to shine throughout our lives, because she was the significant and made that much of an impact on every person she met. Sherri House-Young, is gone but never forgotten.

Sherri House-Young, 60, passed away on December 10th, 2017 with family at her side. She was born on November 9th, 1957, daughter to William and Lila House in Kansas City, KS. Her parents William and Lila House, and her brothers, Jeff and Greg House, precede her in death. Sherri is survived by her spouse, Jim Young; her daughter, Chelsea Hansen (Paulie) of Kansas City; son, Zackary Young (Brenna) of Lee's Summit; her two sisters, Terri Todd (Brian) of Kansas City and Deby Turner (Roger) of Stockton; her nephews, Jordan Todd, Brandon House (Alana), Courtney Turner, Shane Turner

(Kristen), her nieces, Allison Noble (David) and Bridget Turner (Krystal), and her grandchildren, Camryn and Jett Hansen.
