“ I always remember seeing Shirley and Rosie walking up the street at home while they were pre teens, usually looking for Dwayne cause their mom wanted him home. Shirley would always have the biggest smile imaginable. Everyone in the old neighborhood will have sorrow at your passing, but happiness in remembering your smile! Rest well.

Shirley, I'm so sorry that I missed your funeral. We suffered a loss on February 26th and then my tablet broke and just got it back and online today. I truly feel sorry for your family and the pain at their loss of losing you. May you rest well in knowing that you are now with many others that are truly loved in the hearts of many of us. I have nothing But love in my memories of you...
