“ Shirley, you made it to the place where roses never fade. Tim can sing “Where the Roses Never Fade” to you once again. I know he was there waiting for you along with Jesse, Steven and all the rest that have gone home with open arms and tears. I needed you to stay a little longer - I still miss Tim so much – but I know you are happy being home with them too. I will love and miss you always.

I remember when Shirley and Jesse would come to Osborn MO to preach at the church I was attending at that time. What a great blessing for me and my kids. My daughters were also friends with Pam and her brother. May God Bless Shirley's family.
