“ Sondra was more than a customer where I work at. She reminded me of my own mother and whenever she came to my place of employment, I made a point of helping her with her sales. I loved her like my own mother. I will miss her immensely. Rest in peace Sondra. Love Karey Newton

“ Im a second cousin. She and my dad Eugene L. Edwards first. I remember always a smile on her face, warm hugs. Selfless, generous. According to my parents she spoiled me until she and Jay had their first child. Ok lady, love you so much. You and dad behave. Love and blessings to your family

“ Because of the difference in our ages, Sondra lived the exciting and mysterious life of a teenager in many of my early experiences with her. Still, I remember her across all of the years as a quiet, observant, kind and caring cousin who was good to our Grandmother and a valued member of our family. She lives in my memory as an important contributor to my history. My thoughts are with her and her family.
