“ Thinking of you and your family and holding you in my heart during this very difficult time. I believe the last time I saw Steve was at my birthday party last year. As always, he had that wonderful smile and gave Aunt Marsha big hugs as he helped clean up from the chaos of the boys fighting right before the party started. I drew his name at Christmas the first year he came into the family and gave him a Swiss Army knife that he really loved.

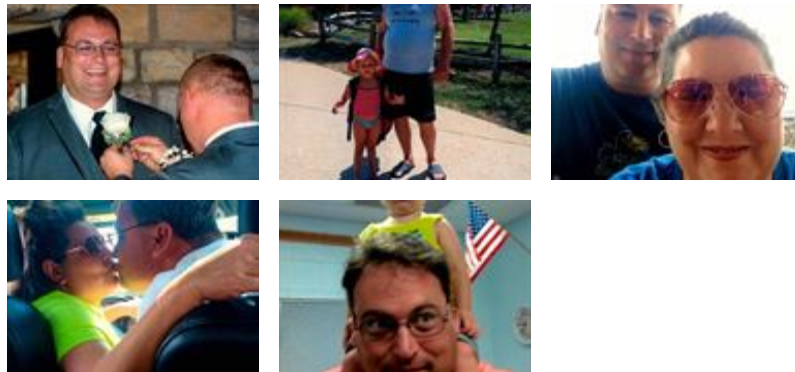

So many memories of such a beautiful soul.

All my love, Marsha
