“ *To Wayne and the girls...
I was so sorry to read of your mother passing. She was always so great to us....letting us have the run of her house as though we were her own children. She was smart and funny too. My condolences to you all.*

“ I am sharing some random photos of aunt Syble Sewell for the family to enjoy. She was always fun and I will cherish the memories that I have of her through out the years. I also included one or two of her children that I had. Thinking of each of you and just know I wish I was with you today. Love, your first cousin, Linda Sandridge Hensley
