“ Wow, this was the night before.

What a great picture. Teresa we will all miss you and we will be sure to look you up when we get to your great new home.

I have to say, Teresa,

You made me work,

You made me laugh,

You made me crazy MAD....

ensuring I filled every request you asked of me.

You are / were a very very demanding friend, co-worker, and someone I considered family.

Now,

You are making me cry -

I am sure that I will not have

You to make me work, make me laugh, make me crazy or even for that matter, touch my heart in ways that you had in the past.

I am going to miss that!

I will always think of you when I see Sissy, when I go to a Royals game, see a Mud Track, NASCAR or even a 24 hour Veterinarian Hospital. Ok Scouters Too.!

Remember saving BUSTER.

Quick Story? Side Note.... I was recently in a training class that asked a silly question. The question was: If you were reincarnated, what would you choose? I said I would come back as a dog only to Sheryl and Teresa, Do you know, I was in company meeting, cause they held 4 over the course of the day, Charlene turned her head and Man she wanted to give me a high five. It wasn't appropriate, but we new what was up... They love there animals.. Teresa is now with Buster. Give him a Treat.

I remember: the first time you ate my lemon chicken and then came back for seconds. You actually liked my lemon spaghetti. Yes I know you picked out my mushrooms. That's alright, my husband doesn't eat them or my kids. I like'm so I got more. It was a Great Family Recipe of mine that you showed approval.

I remember when: I bought You're 4 wheeler and let my son ride it. Not really I was at work, however I did receive a call when he ditched it. Scared as hell driving home I could only thank you for the experience. I was doing you a favor and in return which cost me 900$ in dental work on a July 4th weekend. That is crazy.

Thank God you sold the helmet with the package.

“ My thoughts and prayers I yield to Sheryl, fellow coworkers, acquaintances, and other friends and family of Teresa. My memories are vast of her & Sheryl being there for my dramas following my divorce. Also, celebrations we had at the softball fields following the games or evenings at Dirks. I'm so saddened though know that she is in a much more harmonious place.

*Sincerely,

“ I am deeply saddened to hear of Teresa's passing. I worked many years with Teresa at Citibank and she was a wonderful soul. Both her and Sheryl knew how to make everyone laugh, smile and have a good time. Sheryl you and the rest of your family are in my thoughts and prayers as you move forward through these difficult days. Think of the wonderful memories your sissy brought you!
