There is nothing harder than to live with that on your mind playing over and over every single day it's worse than any nightmare bad dream whatever worst experience you have ever lived . It's the worst feeling I live with facing anybody in her family especially her daughters and grand babies. I sit and stare at out picture everyday and just the noise of that night will never go away and the guilt . I hope nobody will ever have to experience that trama . Remember to use your words wisely and love them will all you heart and sole spend time with loved ones because we just don't know what the Lord has in store for you One day your here and the next day your gone and that's the damn truthI love you Teri Bishop and I miss you more then anybody will ever know RIP TERI BISHOP

“ To many memories to pin point one, but I always called her Teri Bishop, meaning I always said her first and last name. She said Connie just say Teri. So I settled with Teri B, she thought it was funny. After we got older we didn't see each other as much, but when we did it was like we had never been apart. I will miss her beautiful personality and smile. Love always, Connie

“ I have known T since she was a teenager. Seems like yesterday she, Mike & baby Shyla attended my wedding. She is the most loyal, consistent, loving, sincere person I've ever known. This world is not as bright without her without a doubt.

She sure is proud of her girl/grandbabies anyone who knew her can't help but to know them as well whether you met in person or not. I was truly blessed to have known her. I will miss having her "check in/check up" on me and look forward to seeing her again one day.

Until then I find comfort knowing she is with Uncle Bud/Aunt Diana, Casey, GPA Howard, Uncle Dave, Aunt Frannie, Shelly Hollister, and so many others who loves her and were waiting. God Speed Sweet Cousin may you R.I.P.

“ We were just getting to know Teri and liked her very much. She was so very patient and kind to my husband who is in a wheel chair. She would always take the time to visit with him and those visits meant a lot to him. She would bring us doughnuts and got us hooked on Quick Trip cream filled. I will think of her every time I see a cream filled doughnut, and will miss her smiles and visits. I can't begin to think how much her family will miss her. She was so kind and gone too soon. We miss you Teri.

“ Teri and I were inseparable as teenagers, I loved her and her family like mine own and she loved mine just the same. She was a true friend. We could just spend the summer reading books , laying out or doing Chinese fire drill down at the plaza. She was always there for me. We lost touch for some years and the beauty of Facebook I finally got to get caught up with her. I missed her for all those years and was grateful to be reunited. I will always have a special place in my heart for her and the family. I'm just heart broken she's gone and we never got our lunch date. My love goes out to all the family.
