“ I am so very sorry about your Dad. He's with your Mom and sister now and our Lord Jesus Christ. I have such good memories of your parents at Ryan and Brians baseball games. They sponsored the boys teams more times than I can remember..With you living with your Dad Laura you have that many more memories. It seems like there were always grandkids keeping him company, sitting on his lap and he had so much pride in his eyes looking at each and everyone. My prayer's are with you and your brother and all the grandkid's and many friends.

“ I loved Troy and Zella so much. We had a group called the Ambassadors at our church for many years and had such wonderful memories of the friends we made there. I can remember back then we would go out to eat and at that time Troy always ordered Chicken Fried Steak. I've got to admit, it is good eating. I'm so glad Troy has joined Zella and his daughter to spend eternity in Heaven with God. Laura and Larry I want to thank you for the care you have given your parents. You're good kids and they loved you so much. I have moved to Basehor, KS to be near my daughter since my husband passed away in 2009 but will always have warm, loving memories of Troy and Zella. Love and sorrow to the family. Juanita Elrod.
