

Velora M. Hansen

March 31, 1925 - September 3, 2022

Velora M. Hansen, 97, passed away Saturday, September 3, 2022 at Overland Park Regional Hospital. A visitation will take place from 1:00-2:00 PM with Funeral Services beginning at 2:00 PM Friday, September 9, 2022 at the Maple Hill Funeral Home. Burial will follow at the Maple Hill Cemetery. Velora was born March 31, 1925 in Willow Springs, Missouri, the daughter of Paul and Lydia Poppitz. On September 1, 1943 she was united in marriage to Edgar Hansen. Velora enjoyed games of all kinds, cards, crosswords, and jigsaw puzzles. She most often won the games with family. She listened to gospel and country music. Velora never met a stranger anywhere due to her positive and calm demeanor she always carried. The most important thing to her in life was her family. She always boasted about how proud she was of her children and the families they built. She was a faithful Christian, a loving wife, mother, grandmother, and will be dearly missed.

She is preceded in death by her parents Paul and Lydia; husband Edgar; sons Richard and Larry Hansen; grandchildren Richard Alvarez and Dustin Gray; sisters Viola, Alice, and Cora; and son in law Jerry Long. She is survived by five children, Rowena Alvarez (Sal), Pam MacNaughton, Paul Hansen (Janet) Karen Long, and Kathy Hansen; grandchildren, Kristine, Steve, Gary, Paul Jr., Nickie, Dawn, Danielle, Velora "Lora", Chris, Tiffany, Candace, and Lacy; 25 great grandchildren; 16 great-great grandchildren; brother David Poppitz (Linda); and numerous nieces and nephews.

“ Karen, Pam, Rowena & families,

My condolences & prayers to you Karen & your families for the loss of your mother. I remember back years ago your Mom was soooo pleasant & usually said yes for whatever we wanted to do. She had a smile that you couldn't forget & she was so nice to me when I came to your house. I saw her at her 80th birthday & she looked so young & happy. I know it's been years but I think of you & your family often about the fun times & memories we had when we were kids. May God be with all of you during this difficult time. 🙏🙏🙏🙏

Love
