When I was a teenager, I looked up to your Mom so much. I remember that she was the first "in-law" to treat me like an adult. I am so sad that I never had a chance to get to know her better.

“ girls, what a loving heart your mother had. Not only did she love you as you loved her, she was willing to give her every all for you. I will miss not being able to keep up with her-- oh and that red sparkly gown-- No, I don't want it back. just a fond memory! Wish I could be there for you-- just know, I love you all. Mac too.
