“ Thank you for the happy hours we spent playing poker, the laughs, the fun. Commiserating about our health and problems. Chats and bad-mouthing poker hands and each other. So many fun hours with friends at the tables.

“ I just heard about my wonderful friend and neighbor. We spent many times sharing the best and the worse of times always knowing we had each other. I could always walk a few apartments down and her door was always open to me as was her caring heart. What wonderful memories I have of the times she and other neighbors would sit on her porch talking and laughing together in the evenings. What fun times we had with Vickie. I will miss every moment I had with you. I'll see you again someday.
