

Virginia C. Clay

June 21, 1963 - February 5, 2021

Virginia C. Clay, 57, of Olathe, Kansas peacefully passed away with family by her side on February 5, 2021.

Virginia was born the daughter of Rolfe and Virginia Crabb on June 21, 1963 in Kansas City, Kansas. Virginia is preceded in death by her brother, Rolfe Crabb II. She is survived by her loving husband of 32 years, Brent Clay; sons, Devin Clay and Ryan Clay, wife Rachel; brother, Marc Crabb; and many other family members and friends.

Virginia loved deeply. She was first and foremost a wife and mother. She enjoyed family, crafts, taking day trips, visiting antique shops, and exploring new places. A natural organizer, she held a Bachelor of Religious Education and was active in the church and related ministries for much of her life. Her steadfast, conservative nature and high values earned the respect of many people throughout her too-short life.

She is deeply loved.

“Ginger was like a sister to me so I was more than glad to hear her say "if I would have had a sister I would have wanted her to be Teresa". I could talk to her about anything & she would listen without judgement & in the Ginger fashion give me advise. During this whole cancer battle she never wanted to be treated like a person with cancer. She told me that so I tried really hard to treat her as I always had before cancer. When she lost her mobility she still wanted to go places so I would go get her. We had a lot of challenges in getting her out of the house & in the car. Many times we would have to stop half way down the stairs because we would be laughing so hard. We would say we could do anything if we put our heads together. Last year around this time on one of our outings she wanted to go to hobby lobby. She wanted to get something for Brent for valentines day. We probably spent two hours in there her meticulously picking out all kinds of things for Brent. He had her whole heart & that was obvious to all. When she first came into the family years ago I said to her "Ginger you are such a good person, don't ever change. She never did. Love you forever my sister.

“ Brent, Devin, and Ryan, we are so very sorry for the passing of Virginia. She was obviously a wonderful, beautiful, and courageous person and an amazing spirit. Our hope for you all is that her passing will someday translate into smiles of the fond and happier memories for each of you. Know that all of you are in our thoughts and prayers. Our deepest sympathies. In Christ's love, Jeremy Anderson and family

“ May you now rest in peace Aunt G! You loved deeply and your care for others is unmatched. One recent memory was your amazement when I told you how much of an impact you had on the family and myself personally, which shouldn't have been a surprise, but it seemed to have caught you off guard . You carried yourself well and your reputation, no matter the audience, was consistent. You set a high standard in what it meant to 'be good' and 'do good'. May I and many others use your legacy and memories of you, as a means of keeping us humble, loving, and thoughtful in our decision making & actions. Thank you for all that you did and all that you are, you will carry on in the hearts and minds of all of us!

“ Ginger, our precious daughter-in-law, no more pain. Your eyes have now seen the place of wonder that we are yet to see. Thank you for being the perfect wife for our son Brent. You had a depth of love for one another with no measure and no end. You were a wonderful mother to Devin and Ryan and at your happiest when the family was together. Your love for us all depicted who you were. Our family has lost one of our own, you will be greatly missed. There is a place in our hearts that will always belong to you. We love you 💕

“ Virginia or Gingee as I called her was a Lovely Person inside & out! She Loved God, Her Family & Friends. Her Faith & Strength was so Obvious throughout her battle with cancer. On the Crabb side of the family, Gingee was a name we cousins called her since she was a baby. She was the youngest of her 4 girl cousins & with 10 boy cousins & 2 older brothers, she got a lot of attention!! We will Miss You Sweet Gingee until we meet again!! Our Prayers & Sympathy to her husband & sons.
