“ Aunt Ginny was like a mother to me, as well as a wonderful friend. She was only 9 1/2 years older than me and we were very close throughout my childhood, teenage years, and adult years. I have so many wonderful memories of times spent with her. She helped me plan and carry out my wedding, and all that goes with that. She and I shared many fun times together also, just being our crazy selves! We also shared many serious moments. She was very influential in my life in many ways. On the light side, she told me in church one time when I was about 9 or 10 years old, that "ladies never chew more than half a stick of gum." To this day, I cannot chew a whole stick of gum, or even a stick of Dentyne, since it's bigger than half a stick of Juicy Fruit or Spearmint gum. She taught me how to make coffee, and even bought me my first percolator so I could make "real" coffee, instead of the "instant" coffee I had been making. She taught me many spiritual things as well, and I'm a better person because of who she was and what she taught me through the years. I love you so much, Aunt Ginny, and I'll truly miss you, until I see you again in Heaven! Lynna

“ I looked up to Aunt Ginnie as the godly example I've aspired to be all of my life. She nurtured the gift of music in my life from the time I was three years old. She taught me to play the piano 'by ear' & sing. She taught me a song which became my first solo to sing in a Church service at Olivet Baptist Church when it was located on Adams St. She encouraged me, along with Jean Durham & Caren Copeland to form a ladies' trio & accompanied us for Church services, Youth rallies & on the radio for Rev. Floyd Durham's program, 'The Amazing Grace' hour on a radio station broadcasting out of Lawrence, KS. I'm so thankful to GOD that she was such an integral part of my life from the time I was born. She, along with Uncle Earl, became like a second set of parents to me - always showing forth their strong faith in GOD & being good role models of a godly, Christian life. I'm looking forward to the day when we'll all be in Heaven, glorifying GOD with the music HE gave us. Till we meet again - I've loved you all my life & can't wait to get to Heaven to be together again for all eternity!!! :)
