“ I was so very lucky to be able to call Mr. Bradbury a neighbor and a friend. Several years back our paths would cross on our daily walks and he would always bring a smile to my face with a funny story or observation, and I will always treasure those times. Prayers going up for all of you who love and miss him. Pauline, I'm just down on the corner if you need anything, or just to talk.

“ I'm so sorry to hear of Mr. Bradbury's passing. I was lucky to have him for a basketball coach in the 5th grade, and a football coach in the 6th and 8th grades at Blessed Sacrament. He was an excellent coach and someone I looked up to as a kid. He had a way of bringing out the best in us and I've never forgotten the positive impact he had on me. I'm sorry that I won't be able to attend his services on Sunday or Monday. My sincere condolences to his entire family.

“ Prayers to the Family. Very sorry to hear the news. Walter's brother Willard was married to my Aunt Edith Paine. We grew up together in Argentine in the '40's & '50's and he was just a year ahead of me in school. We were heavy into sports and played all of them on the school grounds of Stanley, at Emerson Park, and on Ruby Ave where it dead ended into the hollow just east of 35th street. (I even had a crush on his older sister, Norma Jean). I will always remember him as a real competitor and good friend.

“ Walt introduced me to my husband, Dick, and I thank him for that.
I'm sure the two of them are rehashing old memories of their childhood in Argentine and all the mischief they got into.
My condolences to his many descendants.

“ Prayers for Everyone. I think my biggest memory of Uncle Walt was him calling me "Kev" He was the first one to use this. Also his laugh.
I can still hear it!
