

Wilma Louise Craft

November 24, 1931 - March 2, 2023

Wilma Louise Craft, 91, of Kansas City, Kansas passed away Thursday, March 2, 2023 at home surrounded by family. She was born November 24, 1931 in El Dorado Springs, Missouri the daughter of William and Tarcy Runyan. On May 28, 1951 Wilma married the love of her life, Rayburn LeRoy Craft. Together they raised five children. Wilma was a faithful member of the Argentine Assembly of God and loved to read her bible. She enjoyed Artex paintings, word puzzles, and gathering as a family to watch the Lawrence Welk show on Saturday Nights. Most importantly Wilma cherished taking care of her family and babysitting. She was a compassionate, kindhearted caregiver and lovingly called all those in her care her "Kids". She was deeply loved and will be dearly missed.

She is preceded in death by her husband, Rayburn; son Joseph Craft; son in law Jerry Beggs, and a brother, Billy Runyan. She leaves behind four children, Vickie Page (James), Linda Beggs, Rebecca Pace, and Donna Camp (Arthur); brothers, Evert Runyan and Franklin Runyan; sister in law Bonnie Runyan; grandchildren, William Craft, Mary Pace, David Craft, Billy Stanley, Jason Stanley, Edward Dawson and Lorene Neeley; great grandchildren, Ashley Martinez, Andria Rowe, Alissa Davila, Shane Camp, Shiann Guillen, and Shayna Neeley; and great great grandchildren, Estrella Martinez, Alexcia Martinez, Daniel Martinez, and another on the way.

A visitation will be held from 1:00-2:00 PM at the Maple Hill Funeral Home with graveside services following at 2:00 PM at the Maple Hill Cemetery on Thursday, March 9, 2023.
