

Yvonne Sue Marah

August 24, 1934 - April 24, 2021

Our loving mother, grandmother, and friend Yvonne Sue Marah passed away peacefully in the early morning hours of April 24, 2021, at the age of 86. She was born on August 24, 1934, in Hartville, Missouri, to Ansel Ernest Newton and Thursa Charlottie 'Lottie' Clark Newton. She was the second of three girls.

As mom told us, it was love at first sight. When she first saw dad in the eighth grade, she turned to a friend and said, "He's mine; I'm going to marry him someday." They married after graduating from Hartville High School on March 26, 1953, and would go on to have six children. She was a lifelong mother and housewife. She enjoyed watching Don coach the children's softball teams. Mom was an avid reader, unable to put a book down until it was finished. She created many beautiful tatted, crocheted, and quilted pieces. There wasn't a table or dresser without a doily in sight.

Yvonne was preceded in death by her beloved husband of 65 years, Donald Marah Sr., daughter Connie Franco and sister Phyllis Swinney. She is survived by her five children, Rickie (Amy) Marah, Ron Marah, Vickie (Bob) Pierce, Randie (Elizabeth) Marah, and Don, Jr. (Pam) Marah; her sister Bert Carney, eight grandchildren; and nine great-grandchildren. Her family has requested a private service at Maple Hill Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

“ Yvonne Sue Marah

October 08, 2023 at 10:59 AM

“ Yvonne Sue Marah

September 17, 2022 at 08:24 PM

“ Nancy McCombs lit a candle in memory of Yvonne Sue Marah

Nancy McCombs - April 26, 2021 at 01:34 AM

“ My memories of my Aunt Yvonne are fond ones. I found her to be an amazingly talented woman. It was my understanding that her multitude of creative talents were self taught. Each time we visited, she had something to give of herself, because that was simply who she was. I learned a lot from this wonderful woman and shall treasure each moment shared.

Nancy McCombs - April 26, 2021 at 01:33 AM

SF

“ I did not Mrs. Marah, but her son Don Jr. is married to my niece, Pam. We recall many fond memories when Donnie spoke of his mother. My husband and I send condolences and comfort to the family. May she Rest In Peace. —Sandi and Lyle Froese, McKinney, Texas.

---

Sandra Froese - April 25, 2021 at 11:30 AM